3. (Unclassified - TIW) LIAISON Mark Licht, Legislative Assistant to Representative Clarence D. Long (D., Md.), called requesting estimates on how much the U.S. will be importing from Saudi Arabia by 1985. I referred him to the office of Congressional Affairs, DOE, since we do not have such information on an individual country basis.

4. (Unclassified - TIW) LIAISON Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called saying that the DCI had promised the Committee a copy of the San Francisco Chronicle article containing leaks of classified information. I told him I would send him one, which was done.

✓ 5. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Fred Khedouri, in the office of Representative David Stockman (R., Mich.), who requested a copy of "Major Petroleum Refining Centers for Export." A copy was forwarded this date by courier.

6. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON In response to a request from Sarah Lisenby, on the staff of the House International Relations Subcommittee on Africa, sent via courier to Jack Brady, Chief of Staff of the full Committee, a copy of the 8 June hearing transcript on Cuban involvement in Zaire. This was sent so that Representative Charles C. Diggs (D., Mich.) could review the transcript.

✓ 7. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Glynis, Congressional Research Service, Library of Congress, who requested copies of all unclassified Agency studies on oil. I told her I would check into this and get back to her.

✓ 8. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Frank Correl, in the office of Senator Muriel B. Humphrey (D., Minn.), who requested a copy of the latest National Basic Intelligence Factbook. A copy was forwarded today.

9. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Carol Ortega, in the office of Senator Harrison H. Schmitt (R., N. Mex.), who inquired on behalf of a constituent about intelligence available to the general public. I told her about the unclassified reports which are available through the Library of Congress Document Expediting (DOCEX) Project and forwarded a copy of the DOCEX listing to her.
